

Only in New York

The best things in life are found in the Big Apple

TV and Movie Site Tour

Hollywood may be the entertainment capital of the world, but as an internationally iconic backdrop, nothing beats New York. You probably know how to get to Times Square (Enchanted, Midnight Cowboy) and the Empire State Building (King Kong, Sleepless in Seattle) already, but let the experts direct you to some of the more hidden spots, like Woody Allen's Manhattan diner, the Cosby home, the Ghostbusters' firehouse, and of course, the Friends building. ## Shakespeare in Central Park

A New York tradition dating back to 1957, Shakespeare in the Park's outdoor evening performances kill two birds with one stone by giving you your daily dose of fresh air and a shot of culture. This summer's season kicks off May 27 with Hamlet. Tickets are free, but the line for them is long. Come early, armed with a book and a picnic lunch to relax in the sun while you wait. SHAKESPEARE IN THE PARK DELACORTE THEATER, CENTRAL PARK OR THE PUBLIC THEATER, 425 LAFAYETTE ST., 212.539.8500 (GENERAL LINE)

NYC Condom

In a city where anything can happen, it's best to come prepared. Fortunately, it's easy to stay safe in style with the free, government-sponsored NYC Condom. Just look for the sleek Yves Behar-designed dispensers in bars and clubs throughout all five boroughs. Grab a handful—the Lifestyles-brand prophylactics, wrapped in elegant black packaging, make cheeky souvenirs for folks back home as well.
